> Well, let me introduce myself. I'm a designer [web, graphic, motion, UI/UX] with plenty of experience into the business. I've published my work in USA, Brasil, and Portugal. Websites, branding, magazines, newspapers, billboards, flyers, books, animations you name it. At the moment I've been settled at Porto area, also looking for next project to challenge my creativity.

> And so, I've worked for several magazines, agencies and companies over the years, but will only list some projects for now. If you wish some more information about my work, please just send me an email. Ops... by the way...Yes, I am fluent in English and Portuguese.

2000 - 2001 - FTBOA

During this period I've worked as graphic designer for Florida Horse Magazine and Wire-to-Wire Daily Digest

2001 - 2010
Golfing Magazine

April 2001 I'd started at Pub Links magazine redesigning the complete magazine with national and local markets, even changing its name and brand to Golfing Magazine couple years later.

2000 - Present - Freelancing

Also freelanced for several business all over. from Tuxedo stores, restaurants, to travel agencies and tech startups

2017 - Present
ISTAS - Hotelaria de Ar Livre

November 2017 I embraced the creation of the concept of ISTAS Magazine, with four issues per year and approaching the camping life style in Europe. I also redesigned their website istas.pt and created a new one for the oncoming business istasgarden.com plus an enormous ammount of collateral products, such as flyers, maps, banners, labels, etc...
